1949 SYCAMORE

WABASH HIGH SCHOOL

WABASH, INDIANA

He is just a little bookworm from the sycamore tree, awaiting the opportunity to help you to appreciate the 1949 Sycamore.

The 1949 staff wishes to present to you this year's Sycamore. We hope that it will take its place among the many annuals of the Wabash High, and that it will recall many pleasant memories of your high school days.

FACULTY

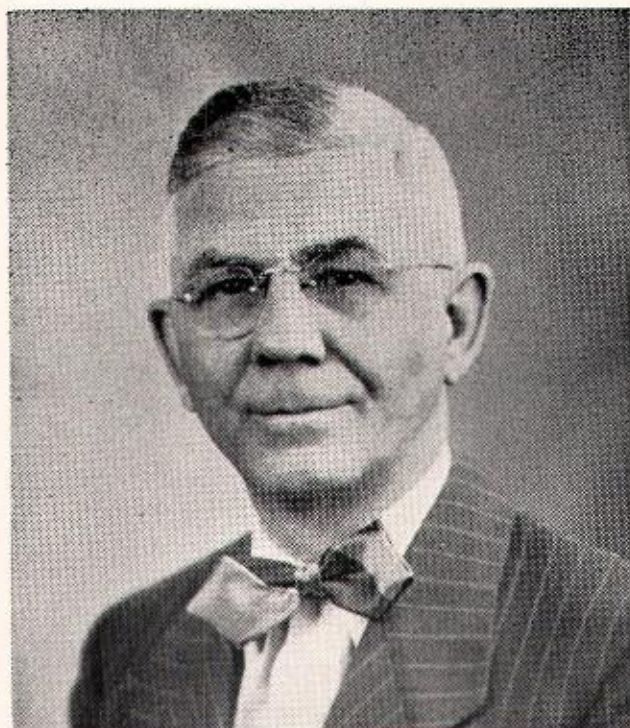

It has been a pleasure to work with you, the Class of 1949, during the last four years. You have been very co-operative from the standpoint of this office, and we wish you every success.

Phil N. Eschew
Principal

To an excellent class, the Class of '49, go the congratulations and good wishes of your school administration. Whenever and wherever you need advice or help, we hope you will feel free to remember and call upon your friends in the Wabash City Schools.

CLASSES

SENIOR CLASS

Richard Reynolds, president; Carol Trisler, vice-president; Norma Brown, secretary-treasurer; Don Armstrong, athletic board member.

These are the officers selected to engineer the activities of the Class of 1949 in its senior year.

The success of the year under their administration is a tribute to them far more meaningful than any that could be expressed in words. The accomplishments of the class under their leadership are a fitting climax to its contribution to the history of the Wabash High School.

G. A. A.

Membership in the Girls' Athletic Association carries with it certain pleasures as well as requirements. With good sportsmanship as a main objective such affairs as skating parties are sponsored.

Awards of letters and sweaters are granted to those who participate in a required list of sports.

Dorothy Forbes, president; Jesse Cassiday, vice-president; Doris Conrad, secretary; Mary Donna Shaw, treasurer; Betty Hetzler, point manager; Miss Flora, sponsor.

THESPIANS

The organization that recognizes outstanding ability in the field of Dramatics is the Thespian Club.

Rosetta Beamer, president; Carolyn Cross, vice-president; Jerry Durnbaugh, secretary; Jeanie Clark, treasurer; Miss Mills, sponsor.

DRAMATICS

This year the Dramatics Club presented "Off the Track" for the Junior Class play. At Christmas a new venture was tried. A group of boys produced and recorded the play, "Dad." A group directed by Eloris Sparks produced "Of All Things," a one-act play. On April 27, the club united with the chorus to present the "Mikado" by Gilbert and Sullivan. The May Festival, "A Fairy Tale," presented May 16, was their final activity.

Under the direction of capable officers, the Junior Red Cross work has moved successfully forward. Council members for the year have collected the usual funds for their own organization and others. The secretary has carefully checked absences with the idea of sending cards to those students who have suffered extended illness or bereavements.

Officers for 1948-49 are: Madge Wolf, president; Dick Carpenter, vice-president; Mary Ann Milliner, secretary; David Smith, treasurer. The faculty adviser is Miss Hipskind.

Student Council

This organization, under the leadership of Mr. Eskew, sponsored several very interesting programs for the students of Wabash High. These included a talent night, a courtesy campaign, and a convocation program by the Wade Quartet.

Mary Donna Shaw, president; Don Armstrong and Dorothy Hetzler, vice-presidents; Mary Ann Naugle, secretary-treasurer.

LIBRARY CLUB

Under the sponsorship of Miss Dove, the school librarian, members of the Library Club helped to catalogue and to shelve books in the library.

After the Kokomo game, the club sponsored the dance, the proceeds from which were given to the Polio fund.

Jack Barrett, president; Don Martin, vice-president; Virginia Parrett, secretary-treasurer.

TRI-HI-Y

One of the most active clubs in Wabash High School is the Tri-Hi-Y, a girls' organization sponsored by Miss Flora. Activities promoted during the year included a Christmas party and several friendship parties for the children of White's Institute. In co-operation with the Welfare Society of Wabash, the Tri-Hi-Y and Hi-Y clubs, at Christmas time, collected food and helped to distribute it among the needy.

Social interests of the club centered around the Harvest Ball and the Spring Carnival.

CAMERA CLUB

For the second year the Camera Club worked separately from the Science Club. The members developed, printed, and enlarged pictures for their exhibit at the Science Club Open-House.

By selling hats and by sponsoring a dance after the game, they raised enough money with which to buy a new enlarger.

John Sager, president; Joe Welty, vice-president; Barbara Schaaf, secretary-treasurer; Mr. Miller, sponsor.

INTER NOS

The Inter Nos has been quite active this year, having enlarged their club by allowing second-year students to join. They had a typical Roman banquet in which the members ate and dressed in Roman fashion. Parties were held monthly in the homes of its members.

Ronald Holloway, president; Richard Leonard, vice-president; Peg Gottschall, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Smith, sponsor.

M. C. L.

Members of the honorary scholastic society engaged this year in an ambitious project — the adoption of the Helgolanderstrasse School of Bremen, Germany. Service clubs, school groups, and individuals very generously contributed money, clothing, and school supplies, which were sent to the needy children of Bremen.

Harold Clupper, president; Nancy Bender, vice-president; Marjorie Graebner, secretary; Rhoda Lightfoot, treasurer; Miss Young, sponsor.

M. F. F.

True to tradition, the M. F. F. Club gave the annual banquet for the football lettermen and special guests, the members of the cross-country team. Besides giving the banquet the club sponsored an after-the-game dance, decorated the football field for the home-coming game, and presented the Christmas tree for the hall.

SCIENCE CLUB

Last fall the Science Club sponsored a trip to points of scientific interest in Chicago. In the spring, with the help of Wabash manufacturers, the club displayed its work at an open house.

Harold Clupper, president; Dick Reynolds, vice-president; Phyllis Renbarger, secretary-treasurer; Mr. Ritchie, sponsor.

DEBATE

"Resolved: that the United States now be revised into a Federal World Government" was the state-wide topic for debate during the year.

Our successful team, directed by Mr. Tewksbury, participated in four tournaments and twenty-four debates, winning more than a majority.

The affirmative team consisted of Hugh Landis, Lowell Bain, and Jim Vice; the negative, Winifred Cales and Galen Weaver.

Ably directed by Mr. Jinks, the Wabash High School Band has had quite a busy year. Its members, adorned in their new orange and black uniforms, displayed spectacular routine at the home football games and also provided entertainment at the basketball contests. The band played in winter and spring concerts, which were greatly enjoyed by Wabash patrons.

ATHLETICS

Despite a slow start the 1948 Wabash Apache football team ended its schedule with a better than average record by winning four games, tying one, and losing three.

The Elwood Panthers spoiled the Scalpers' initial gridiron opener on Alumni Field by defeating the Tatummen, 20-0. To most Wabash followers it looked as if the Apaches would have a losing season, but on the following Friday night they drubbed Concordia of Fort Wayne, 27-0, for their first victory.

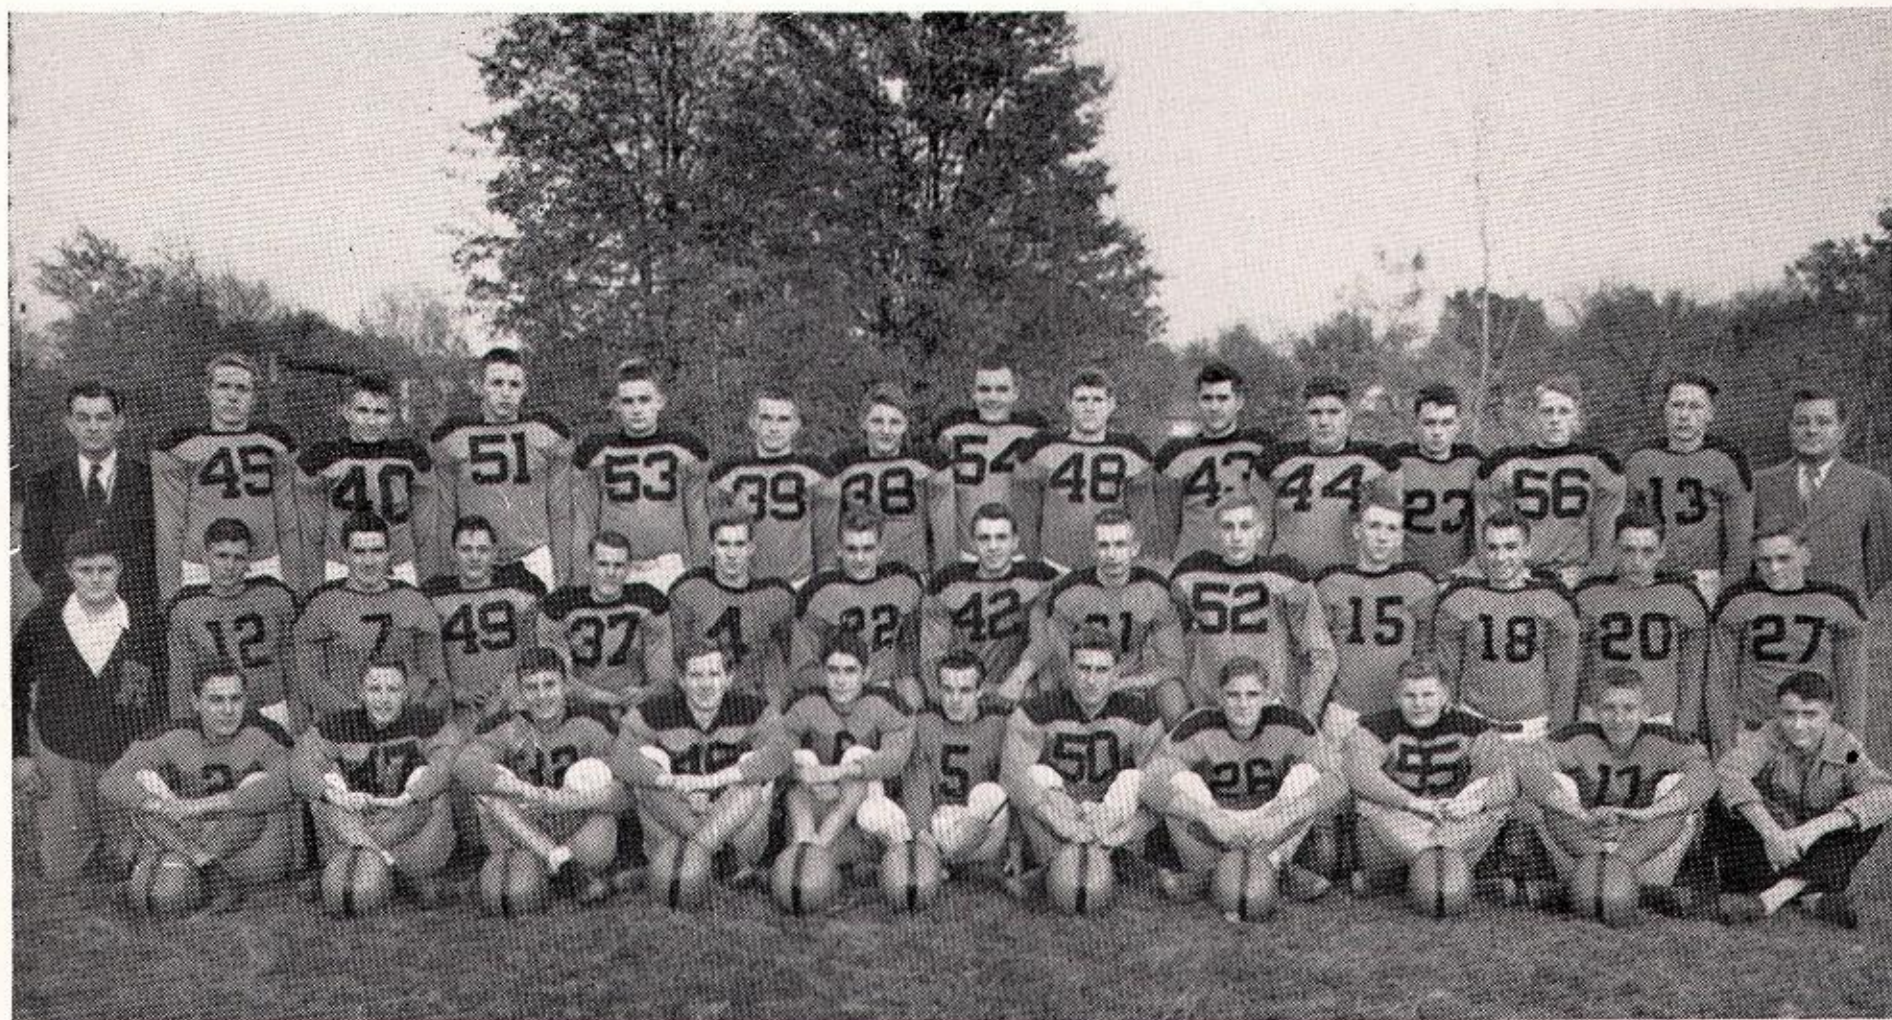

Huntington handed the Apaches their second setback of the season on September 24, by a 40-0 score. It was their worst loss to the Vikings in several years. Plymouth continued its old jinx over the Orange and Black team by scoring a 20-6 win at the Rockie Field.

Peru's Tigers, long arch-rivals of Wabash, were the next foe; and the Bengals were heavy favorites. Before nearly 5,000 fans at Peru, the Apaches and Peru battled to a 13-13 deadlock. The unusual part about this game was that there were only 15 yards in penalties, and that penalty was for too many time-outs. The typical Wabash-Peru game would usually be rougher. Another unusual incident was that neither of the two teams used a punt the whole contest.

Following this encouraging game Wabash journeyed to the home of the Hartford City Airedales, where they won their first Central Indiana Conference tilt of the year by a 25-6 score. The win at Hartford City was the first of three wins for the Scalpers in the final half of their season.

Wabash tripped Bluffton next, 20-13, at the latter's field and then returned home three nights later to drub the Marion Giants, 35-25, in its season final. The Apaches went into the Victory Bell battle the underdog, but erased a 19-14 halftime lead held by the Giants and scored three touchdowns in the final two periods to win.

Seniors Dean Guhl and Jim Hipsher were chosen on the first all CIC team and Guhl also was elected honorary captain for the year.

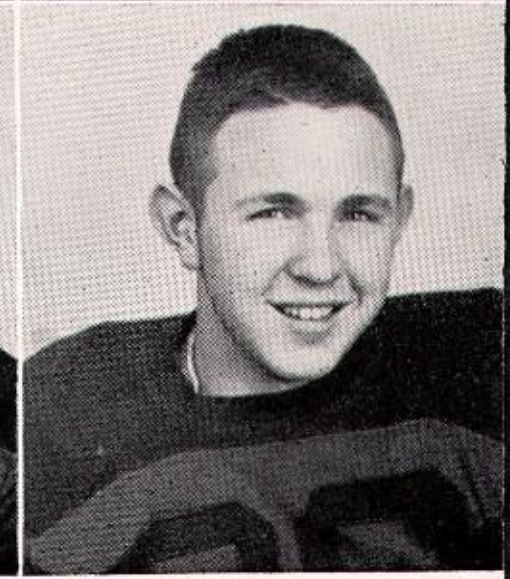

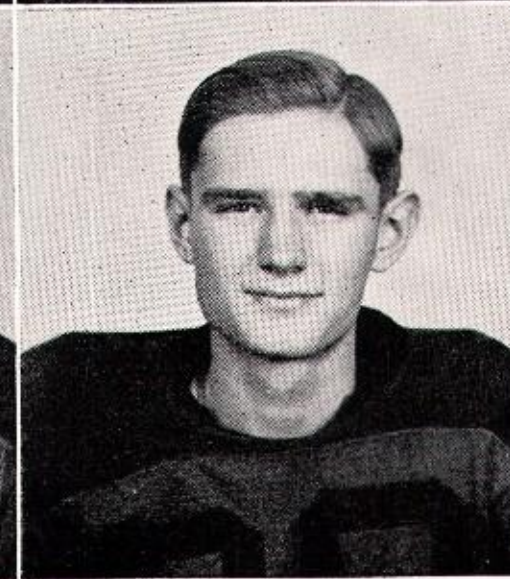

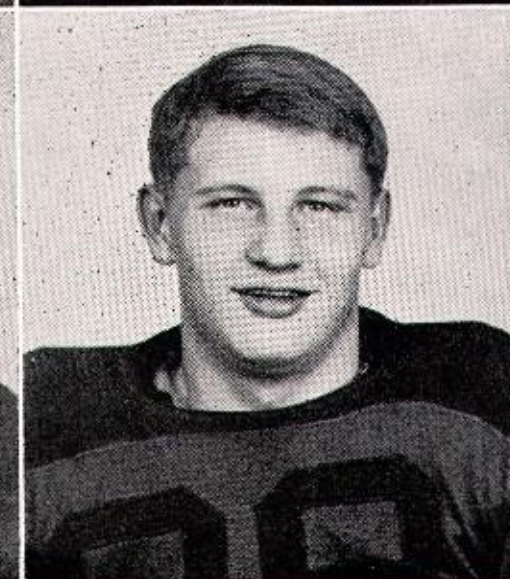

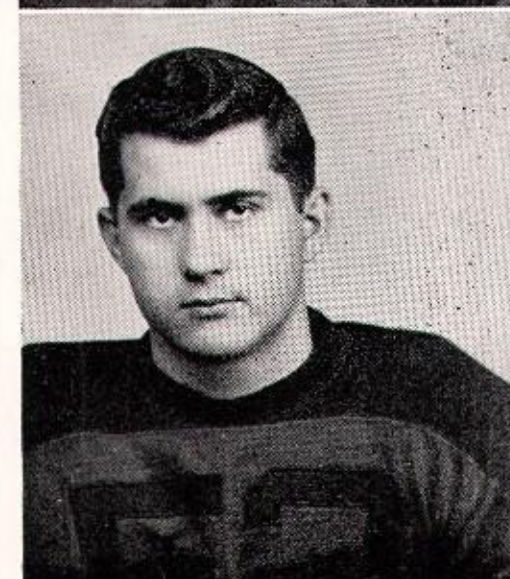

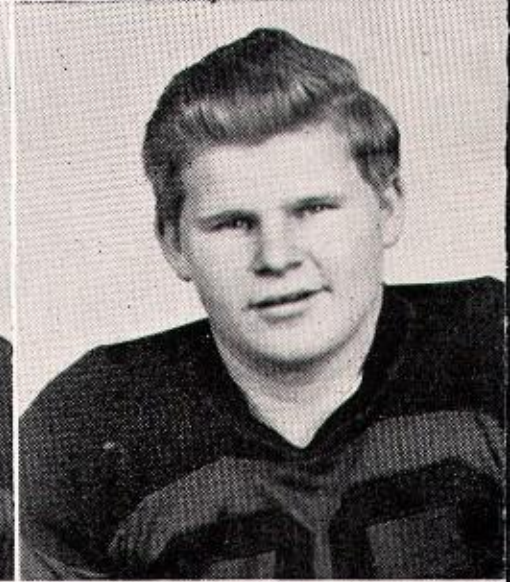

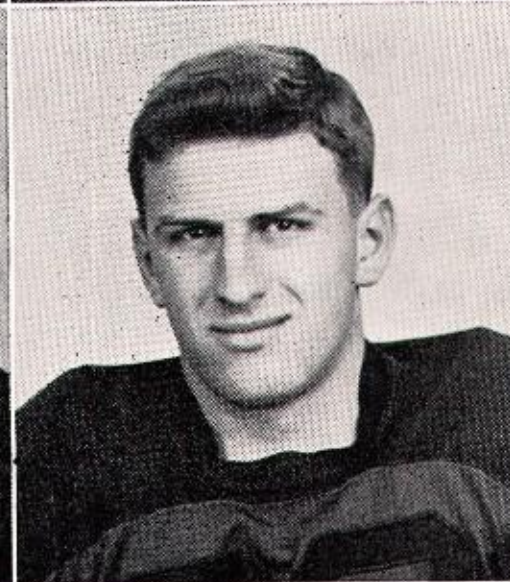

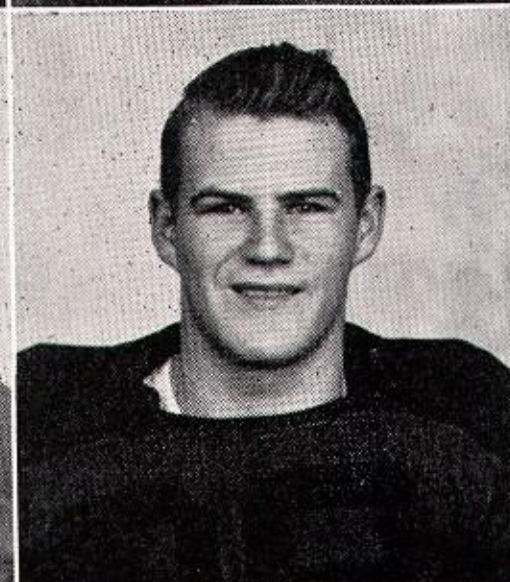

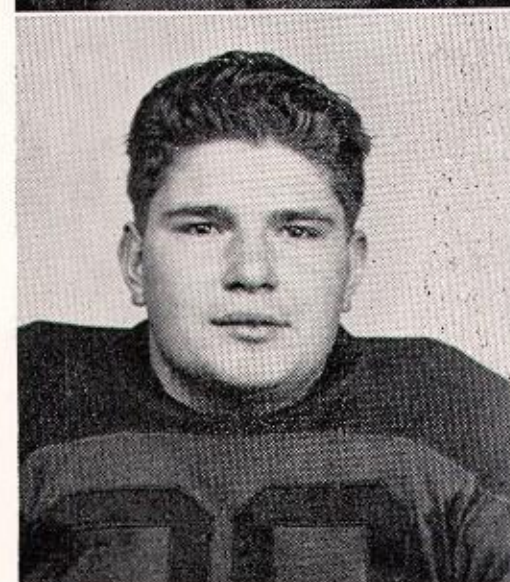

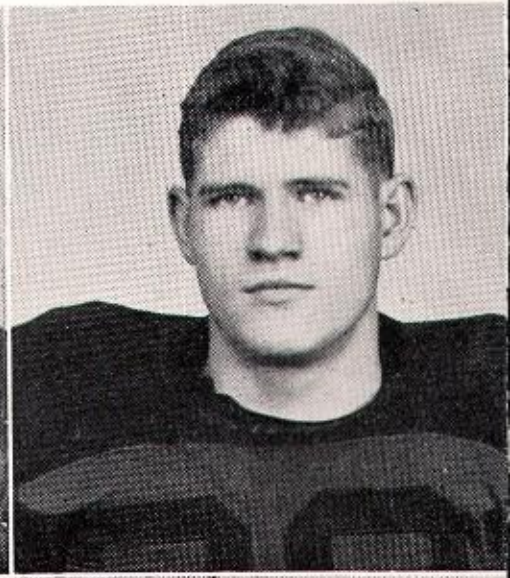

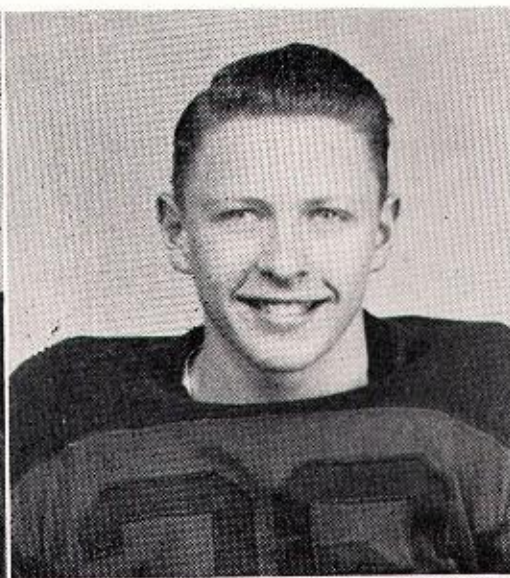

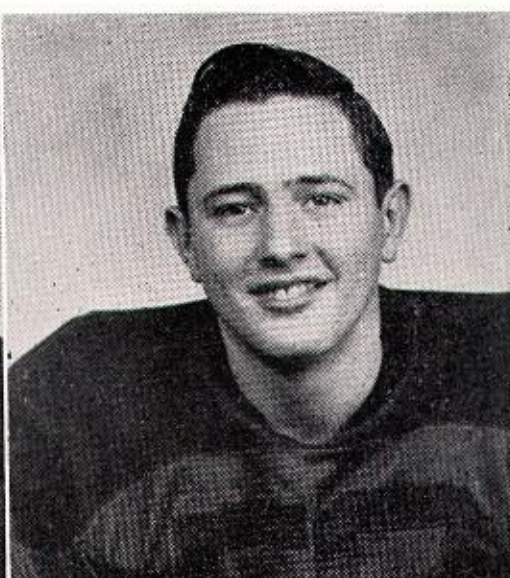

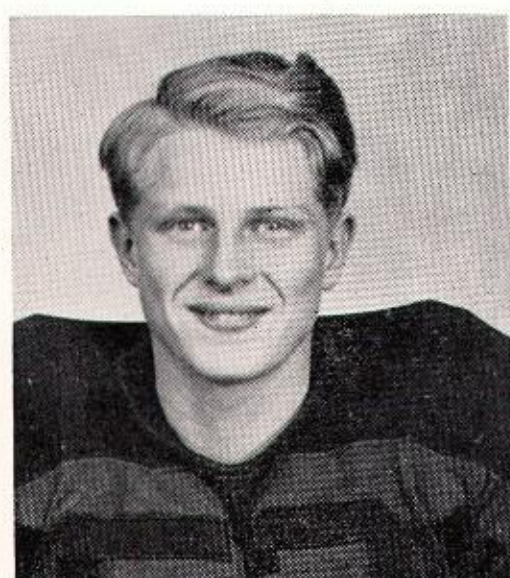

The seniors who played their final football season for Wabash High School are the following: Jim Hipsher, Dean Guhl, Lemoine Collins, Jim Harris, Jerry Hodel, Galen Weaver, Dick LaSalle, Don Martin, Dick Alexander, and Joe Welty.

Glen Coolman
Coach

Despite the fact that they were small, the Wabash High School "B" team won eight games on their 18-game schedule playing against top-notch competition. The Papooses showed fighting spirit typical of Wabash reserve teams in the past and fought the hardest when the chips were down. The boys that played on the "B" team this last year will be expected to take the places vacated by those graduating. Because of their cool and steady spirit they are expected to play to the best of their ability. The reserve squad was under the capable direction of Mr. Coolman.

SECTIONAL CHAMPS

The record compiled by the 1948-49 Wabash High School basketball Apaches probably was not the most outstanding in Apache history; but it was evident, that Coach Randall Lawson had the highest scoring cage quintet ever to wear the banners of W. H. S.

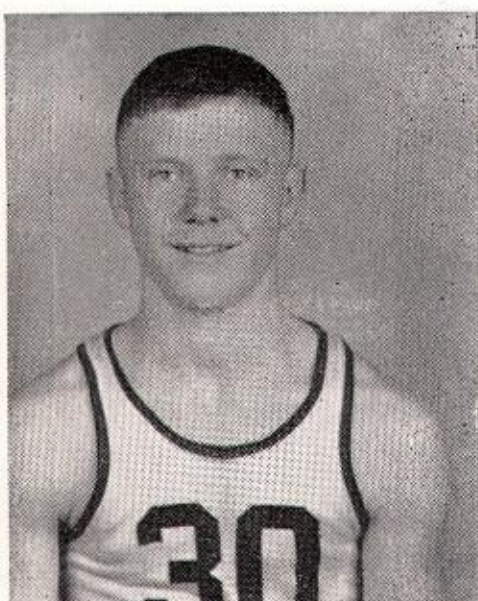

A few tough breaks were the only thing that kept the Lawsonmen from going all the way to the State Finals at Indianapolis. Auburn's Red Devils, who did reach the Big Four, were nipped by the Scalpers in a regular season tilt, 41-40.

Kokomo's Wildcats, always a tournament jinx of the Apaches, edged Wabash, 55-53, in the final game of the Regional at Marion after Wabash had stopped Sheridan in the afternoon game, 50-53. During the regular schedule Wabash had beaten Kokomo, 49-48.

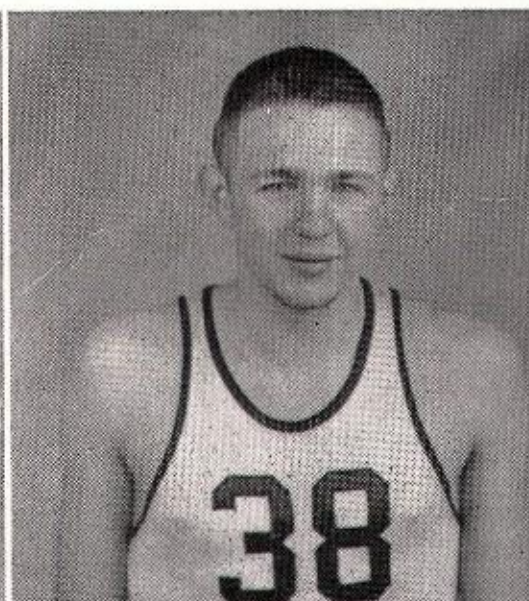

In gaining 20 victories in 26 games, the Orange and Black netters tossed in 1,362 points to set an all-time Wabash High School scoring mark. The old record was set by the 1945-46 team of 1,024 points.

Of all the teams, five to be exact, coached here by Mentor Lawson, not one fought more gamely than this year's team. In the final Regional contest the Kokomo aggregation had the Scalpers down 10 points with six minutes to play, but the Scalpers tied the score twice before the final gun sounded.

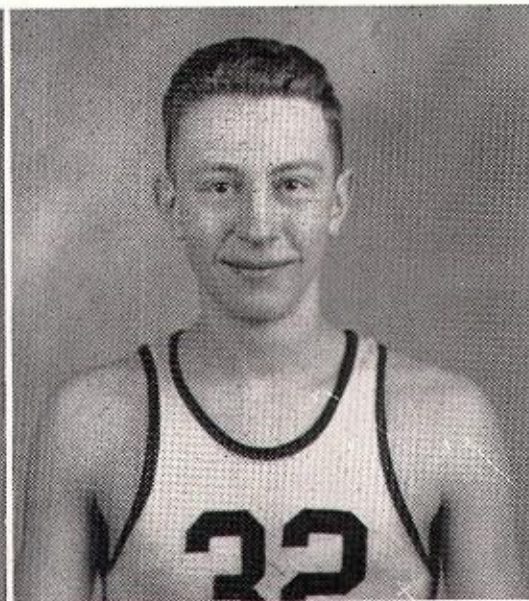

In the Central Indiana Conference, Wabash finished in third place, winning seven games and losing three. Only once in five years that Coach Lawson has been at the helm of the W. H. S. cage teams has Wabash finished out of the first division in the loop.

Kaye Wilson, who led the team in scoring for the season with 349 points, was crowned the leading point-getter in the C. I. C. as he tossed in 172 markers in 10 league games. The junior sniper hit 32 points against Plymouth to tie the single-game scoring record set by "Muff" Davis of Elwood in 1942 and in turn tied by Johnny Rockwell of Wabash in 1946.

Wilson, also, along with Big Jim Hipsher, senior center, was selected to the Central Indiana Conference all-star team. Wabash was the only team to place two men on the first team.

Dick Miller and Galen Weaver, hard driving senior guards, were nominated for the Indiana All-Star team which plays a group of Kentucky stars each year in June. At the Sycamore deadline the team had not been named.

Last, but not least, comes the fine play of Dale "Whitey" Thomson, junior forward.

"Whitey" came through with the baskets when they were needed most. In the final of the Sectional tournament against LaFontaine, Thomson contributed 21 points as Wabash won, 62-32.

TRACK

A large group of aspirants greeted Coach Holloway as workouts began for the '49 track squad. Missed was Bob McDaniel, stellar dashman. Back to garner their share of points are lettermen Ted Parker, halfmile; Jim Bean, hurdle; Jim Vrooman, high jump; George Thomas, dash; John Oldenkamp, middle distance; Jim Alexander, quarter mile; Jim Backus, mile. The Scalpers record-breaking mile-quartet didn't suffer from graduation and is expected to set new marks this year. Don Williams, ace cross-country runner, and Dick Miller, dashman and transfer from Chippewa, complete the varsity.

Two meets are history as the Sycamore goes to press. In the class track meet, the seniors scored an unprecedented 117 points in winning. March 29 saw the Apaches drub county champion Chester, 61-48, setting records in the dashes, the hurdles, and the mile relay, on the Panther oval. The remaining schedule:

CROSS - COUNTRY

Our Cross-Country team ended their 1948 season with seven victories and one defeat as their record. These harriers, after losing one runner from the 1947 Conference team, came through to boost the record for the last five years from 24 wins and 4 loses to 31 wins and 5 loses. The Apaches went over the two-mile course with confidence of winning eight times and failed only once.

Miller, E. Bean, Bitzel, Oldenkamp, Backus, Hickey. Kneeling: J. Bean, Williams

Their lone defeat was suffered at the hands of the Anderson Indians, the present State Champions, by a score of 27-28. With this year's record and that of the last five years, Coach Austin Holloway is very proud of these willful runners.

Though losing their title of Conference Champions to Burris of Muncie, they took second place and brought home two of the five conference medals. The going was good in the sectional; for the harriers repeated their second-place position of 1947, thereby allowing them to compete in the State Finals. There, the Apaches bettered their twelfth place standing of 1947 by finishing in tenth position. With two of the first five runners back, the Cross-Country outlook for next year is fairly good.

BOOSTERS

Basketball fans have been impressed by the effective cheering at home games. The Booster Club, open heretofore to girls only, allowed boys to join this year. The girls, wearing white blouses and black ties, and boys, with their white shirts and black bow ties, sat in a reserved bloc. They not only made a colorful sight but, by co-operative effort, kept enthusiasm high.
